Retire for the evening and wake up in a different century. A town as historic as Annapolis calls for accommodations as historic as ours. Three charming inns take you back in time, with 124 guest rooms all handsomely restored and tastefully furnished in original and reproduction antiques.

At the same time, rooms offer all modern conveniences, including private baths, phones, cable TV and data ports. Soak up more historic atmosphere in our Treaty of Paris restaurant, Drummer's Lot Pub, and King of France Tavern. And all our facilities are clustered around two circles in the very heart of Annapolis, convenient to all the town's quaint shops, historic attractions and its colorful waterfront. Join us for Colonial Tea Time every Wednesday from 3:00 - 4:00 pm.

PARKING INFORMATION

* Meters and Residential Parking ****

Metered parking is available throughout the business areas of Annapolis. Meter hours are from 10am to 7:30pm Monday through Saturday and noon to 7:30pm Sunday! Some residential areas have restricted parking to limit non-residents to two hours of parking. So, even if there are no meters, be sure to read the signs and estimate how long your vehicle may remain there. Do not park by yellow or red-lined curb areas. The enforcement by the City Police of meter and other parking regulations is very stringent.

You are best advised to leave your car at your hotel or in a parking lot. Walk, bus, trolley or taxi to the downtown area. The Historic Inns of Annapolis provides valet parking for $12 a day. Leave your keys with the valet outside the Calvert House, or ask at the front desk.
